The Guiding Principles

We are bond-servants of the Lord, completely dependent upon Him for guidance and help.

We do not trust in chariots or horses, but in the name of the LORD our God. Psalm 20:7

We are a discipleship and a multiplication ministry.

Discipleship: teach women how to pray and trust God

Multiplication: every school prayed for by a group

We have been called to serve in Moms in Prayer.

We are accountable to represent the ministry and vision with love and integrity.

We nurture, encourage and equip with a godly, gracious, uncritical spirit, setting an example of biblical womanhood and sexual purity.

We strongly believe and support God-instituted, biblical marriage as the covenant relationship between one man and one woman.

We have a message that brings encouragement and hope to mothers.

We maintain strict confidentiality – what is prayed for in the group, stays in the group.

We pray for children and schools.

We are not a lobbying group: Moms in Prayer International is not a lobbying group, regardless of how worthy the cause. Participation in outside political and social issues must be done solely on an individual basis. Under no circumstances should the Moms in Prayer International name be used in conjunction with outside issues.

We will communicate to our financial supporters with the highest professional standards of truth, accuracy, and propriety before God.
