

30-Second Radio Announcement for Bless Our Schools Sunday

On September 15th, Moms in Prayer International is sponsoring Bless Our Schools Sunday, a chance for churches around the world to unite together as they pray for students, teachers and school staff.

Imagine the impact this will have on those who dedicate their days to educating students and for the students who need God's protection, guidance and encouragement. This time of prayer can affect every school in your community.

Is God calling YOUR church to participate? Find out more at MomsInPrayer.org