In this series we have explored the four steps of prayer – praise, confession, thanksgiving and intercession. The video demonstrated how to pray through these four steps together with a friend. In this session, you will practice the discipline of prayer on your own. You can study all three attributes at once or work through one each day.

4. Have you seen answers to your prayers? Are you waiting on the Lord for an answer? If you are waiting on the Lord based on the verses below what do you know to be true?

Romans 8:28

Psalm 5:3

Micah 7:7

Galatians 6:9

Psalm 130:5

5. Write down Psalm 16:8, our Stand Unshaken theme verse.

6. What have you learned over the past few weeks to help you pray with greater confidence?

Father, Thank You for allowing me to come before You with boldness and confidence. Whatever I ask according to Your will, You hear. I praise You for being faithful, wise and loving. May my thoughts be centered on Your attributes as I come before Your throne. To You alone be all the glory. Amen.
